Why register early?

Please note that all event venues, social events, accommodation, and associated transfers have capacity based on our estimates. Early registration secures access to the event, as it may not be guaranteed if demand exceeds the initial estimates.

Cancellation policy

For IOSCO Annual Meeting: Cancellations on or before 26 April 2025 will receive a refund with a € 200 cancellation fee deducted from the registration fee, to cover our costs for registration administration and cancellation of external supplies. Cancellations after this date will receive € 200 cancellation fee deducted from the registration fee, to cover our costs for registration administration and cancellation of external supplies.

A delegate of an IOSCO member unable to attend may elect a new delegate from their organization holding the same IOSCO permissions to attend on their behalf. Upon confirmation of transfer, the elected delegate must provide a recent digital passport photograph in JPEG format.

Cancellations and request for registration transfers must be notified in writing to the IOSCO 2025Qatar mailbox (IOSCO2025@qfma.org.qa).

No refund will be granted for cancellation of speakers.

In the event that as a consequence of major security issues or serious unforeseen “force majeure” reasons, the Annual Meeting, QFMA Public Conference, or social events have to be cancelled, neither IOSCO, nor the QFMA shall be liable for the cancellation of travel arrangements or be subject to any travel costs compensation to participants. However, the registration fees already collected by the QFMA will be refunded in full. The QFMA will make best endeavours to ensure that participants are waived from any cancellation costs or penalties, or fees associated with their hotel reservation.

Cancellation and refund policies for booked accommodations are published in the Accommodation section of the IOSCO Annual Meeting 2025 website.

Please note – for IOSCO members’ delegates:

A failure to obtain a visa or gain border entry will not be a ground for refund of any fees. However, we may, in our discretion, refund the registration fee, less the cancellation fee, if:

- The visa was applied at least 5 weeks prior to the Event date and proof is shown that a visa could not be granted even though all requested documents were submitted; and
- A written request for registration cancellation and refund is sent by email to the IOSCO 2025 Qatar mailbox (IOSCO2025@qfma.org.qa) by no later than 26 April 2025.

Receipt

Once you have completed your registration and payment, you will receive a receipt for the registration fee. Information appeared on the receipt will be derived from your registration form. Therefore, amendments to your receipt could not be requested.

Delegate travel responsibilities

You are responsible for arranging your own visas, flights, accommodation, relevant travel documentation, travel and health insurances, and foreign exchange.

Visa requirements

All participants should check the visa requirements to enter Qatar.

You should allow sufficient time for visa application to ensure your timely departure for Qatar and to avoid a cancellation fee if visa entry is denied.

Visa support letter

Once your registration is complete, a confirmation email will be sent to you containing your full name and the dates of the events you are registered for.

You must ensure that your name details match the details in your passport. Please attach a copy of this confirmation email to your visa application. If necessary, a letter of invitation can be provided to support your visa application upon request by email to the IOSCO 2025 Qatar mailbox (IOSCO2025@qfma.org.qa).

Accommodation

Hotels with negotiated rates have been secured for Event attendees. For further information, and to view the cancellation policies, please visit the IOSCO Annual Meeting 2025 Website.

Transfers

Scheduled shuttle transportation between Hamad International Airport and the meeting venue and other official hotels, and between the meeting venue and social events venues will be provided. Participants must ensure that they provide their flight details in order to benefit from airport transfers

Modification of program

IOSCO and the QFMA Event organizers reserve the right to make changes to the Event program including presenters and sessions where necessary. In the unlikely event that a presenter withdraws, we may make appropriate decisions in the best interests of the Event. Please note that this will not include refunds but may include changes to the program and cancelling or re-arranging sessions.

Dietary requirements

We will make reasonable efforts to cater for dietary requirements identified in your registration, but we do not guarantee all dietary requirements will be met.
